Jaime Robinson, Vice-president, Executive Creative Director, Pereira & O'Dell

09.40 GET TO KNOW THEM PROPERLY

Using data to build an accurate picture of individual consumers

- Understand their needs – collecting and analysing data to build a picture of individual consumers. How much can social media really tell you?
- Get involved with their hobbies and interests – cricket fans are 64% more likely to shop online for men's suits than general web surfers (according to Marketing Week). How can you use consumers' personal interests to reach and engage them?
- Let them pick the place – how to identify the most effective places for consumers to see or engage with you

Matt Atkinson, Chief Marketing Officer, Tesco

Ed Pilkington, Marketing and Innovation Director, Diageo Western Europe

Andrew Warner, Senior Marketing Director, EMEA, Expedia

Marketing in the moment

Bruce Daisley, Managing Director, Twitter UK

11.30 ALWAYS BE THERE FOR THEM

Instant marketing

- Be constant – delivering ubiquitous marketing, giving consumers the option to engage with you anywhere, any time
- Make the most of the moment – real time marketing that is able to react to events immediately

Peter Dahlström, Director and Global Leader of Marketing and Sales Practice, McKinsey & Company

Tamar Kasriel, Managing Director, Futureal

12.30 LUNCH

13.30 MEAN A LOT TO THEM

Delivering content with value

- Be honest - marketing based on truth
- Be virtuous - how to build a picture of what individual consumers respect in terms of ethical behaviour or social responsibility
- Resonate with what they really care about - providing content that reflects the individual interests of your customers
- Make interesting conversation - how to ensure you have something genuinely thought-provoking or engaging to say
- Listen better - how to listen as well as you talk

Wayne Hemingway, Founder and Director, HemingwayDesign

Moray MacLennan, Worldwide Chief Executive Officer, M&C Saatchi

Amanda Mackenzie, Chief Marketing Officer, Aviva

Philip Davies, President, EMEA, Siegel+Gale
