

BS 7533-101 - Designing modular paving to last

Date: 20 October 2021

Time: 10:00 - 12:30 UK time

Agenda

10:00 - 10:05 Welcome and introduction

Gavin Jones, Standards Development Manager - Built Environment, British Standards Institution

10:05 - 10:20 The standard, a guide to design for the master planner, architect and landscape architect and how it differs from the previous version

Philip Crichton, Specification and Technical Consultant, Steintec tuffbau

10:20 - 10:35 How the engineer will use the standard, their user journey, and the foundation upon which the upper layers can be designed

Thomas Emerton, Pavement Engineering Manager, Marshalls plc

10:35 - 10:50 Describing the standard traffic categorisations, and overlay options

Ian Walsh, Director and Senior Consultant, Road Consultants Ltd

10:50 - 11:00 Break

11:00 - 11:15 Bedding, and jointing options for bound and unbound in the context of the different materials and where they are used

David Burton, Chief Executive Officer, tuffbau International

11:15 - 11:30 The use of concrete

Colin Nessfield FICT, Technical and Product Association Manager, MPA British Precast

11:30 - 11:45 The use of clay

Alex Patrick-Smith, Managing Director, Dreadnought Tiles & Ketley Brick

11:45 - 12:00 The use of natural stone

Michael Heap, Chairman, CED Ltd

12:00 - 12:30 Q&A session facilitated by Gavin Jones

12:30 End of the webinar
